WORSHIP

NOTES FROM FR. JENSON

In our Gospel reading Jesus is tested by the Pharisees. They try to trip him up by giving him a loaded question. If he says that the people should pay the Roman census tax, he might look like a collaborator and the people might turn against him. If he says not to pay it, they will turn him over to the Romans for inciting revolt against them.

Jesus circumvents this trap by asking whose image is on the coin. When they say Caesar's, Jesus says, give to Caesar what is his, and to God what is God's. Jesus does not address the question of validity of the Roman tax he simply states that the money used to pay the tax is their currency, let them have it. But what belongs to God must be given to God. What belongs to God is our faith and obedience to his will for us. Taxes and currency are only involved with following God's will insofar as they show whether we support God's will or not.

How do we use our money? Do we use it all on our own interests, or do we also help others when we can? What the government does with our tax dollars is something that should affect how we vote, as we are in a democracy. Jesus stepped out of the Pharisees' trap by putting how we live our lives as the most important matter for us. Our lives are not reducible to money and taxes. As God's people, we must give him our loyalty in our actions and decisions.

On October 25th, the Hennepin County Sheriff will speak at the 10:30am Mass on behalf of the Minnesota 100 Club which raises funds for families of first responders fallen in the line of duty. There will be a second collection at all Masses next weekend. On November 1st there will be a brunch at St. Peter and Paul honoring first responders following the 9am Mass.

Announcement(s):

- Membership involves offering gifts of time, talent, and treasure to support St. Thomas the Apostle's mission. Please welcome Claudia Ross Tjornhom to the St. Thomas the Apostle parish family.
- Cemetery clean up Information: Please kindly remove any flowers or items from the gravesite of your loved one(s) by November 30, 2026. Your help with this matter is greatly appreciated.
- Tuesday through Thursday weekday Masses and Confessions will move back to Ss. Peter and Paul on October 20. Tuesday morning Mass will also return to 8am, and Confessions that day will be 7:15-7:45am. Mark your calendars and/or make a reminder note on your phone so that you go to the right church at the right time for a weekday Mass. The afternoon confessions on Tuesday and Wednesday will move back to St. Peter and Paul as well.
- Rosaries: If you have unbroken Rosaries you no longer need, feel free to drop them off at the parish center entry or offices; they will be included in a batch for those who need one.
- What you need to know for voting in 2026: Election Day is Tuesday, November 3. Go to mnvotes.org to register to vote, learn about in-person early voting or apply for an absentee ballot, find your polling place, or view a sample ballot. Visit mccl.org/voterguide to see MCCL's pro-life voter's guide and other election information.
- To culminate National Vocation Awareness Week, the Office of the Delegate for Consecrated Life is sponsoring a Religious Communities Open House. The Open House is Sunday, Nov. 8, from 1-4pm. All the faithful of the Archdiocese are invited, especially families, youth, and young adults. Come and see! Visit where they pray and ask questions to learn more about their life and vocation. Consider visiting five religious communities during the open house and praying a decade of the rosary for vocations between visits. Learn more at archspm.org/events/open-house-sunday.

MASS INTENTIONS | October 23-25

Fri 8:30am: Robbie Dixon
Sat 8:30am: Connie Eisenrich †
5:30pm: Jack Dixon †
Sun 7:30am: Jack Aeshliman †
10:30am: Bonnie Morin †

DID YOU KNOW: Mass intentions are scheduled by contacting the parish office. The suggested offering for each Mass is $7. The offering connected with the intention helps support the priest, parish, and broader works of the Church. Mass intentions are offered for a particular person or intention, and that the person or situation is entrusted to God in a special way during the celebration of the Eucharist.

DONUT SUNDAY

All are encouraged to participate in the Catholic community following Sunday Mass including coffee, juice, and donuts (free-will offering). Just take a few steps to the Parish Center located northeast of the church.

VOLUNTEER BE A HERO

Nourishing HOPE is a ministry of Our Father's Lutheran Church in Rockford (ourfatherschurch.org/nourishing-hope.html). The mission is to relieve food insecurity by offering fresh produce, dairy, and meat to area folks.

Boxes of food are filled at Our Father's and then available for drive-through pickup on a first-come, first-served basis at St. Thomas Catholic Church and five other churches in Buffalo, Rockford, Delano, Hanover, and Maple Grove on the second Monday of each month.

Volunteers meet at Our Father's on the second Monday of each month at 9:45am for a couple of hours to fill boxes, then meet up again at 3:30pm at St. Thomas Parish Center for about an hour to distribute the boxes until they're gone.

The current St. Thomas ministry leader is looking for someone to replace her starting with the December 14th event. The leader's main responsibilities are purchasing, assembling, and labeling boxes as needed; coordinating with a list of St. Thomas volunteers for both morning food packing and evening food distribution; and communicating with Our Father's church ministry contact.

If interested in taking over as the St. Thomas ministry leader, contact the current leader, Lill Wawra, at 612.600.2050 or lwawra@hotmail.com. Lill will train her replacement.

JOIN CHOIR

Your St. Thomas parish choir is singing for its first time this season at the 10:30am Mass this weekend! During the transition period from Dianna Anderson's departure, the group will practice together the Monday before singing, from 6-7:30pm in the church (volunteers are asked to practice on their own, as well in preparation for being together.)

Please prayerfully consider joining! Simply show up or contact the Music Coordinator, Carrie Ferdinandt, call or text 612.245.3576.

Blessing for World Mission Sunday

O God,
You never cease to call us to Yourself, bless the mission fields where we sow, tend, and reap. Give us your grace and strength as we share Your love with families and friends, strangers and sojourners. Give us the right words, the right inspirations, the right invitations, the right love. Your love, shared. Amen.

LEARN MORE ABOUT YOUR CATHOLIC FAITH

GOSPEL MEDITATION | By Father John Muir

Occasionally, I'll slip into a parish I've never visited before, pick up the bulletin, and find one of my Gospel reflections. My heart usually swells with a bit of affection for my creation. I imprint a bit of myself into my little "literary labors of love." Anyone who has created something — a piece of writing, a garden, a meal, a child — knows that feeling. We love the things we put ourselves into. We are happy when they return to us.

With this in mind, listen to Jesus' classic line in this Sunday's Gospel: "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God" (Matthew 22:21). He presents this little riddle to deepen the theme from taxes to human beings. A Roman coin bears Caesar's image, so it belongs to Caesar. Therefore, he has a legitimate claim to it. Fair enough. But what belongs to God? What bears His image? Every human being. God has imprinted Himself on every person. That means everyone—including Caesar—belongs entirely to Him. Jesus, who is God's perfect image, has come to draw everyone back to God.

We can be tempted to imagine that our lives are made up of "things for God" and "things not for God." The good news is that no such division is possible because everything in life is a gift from God to us. Therefore, all is meant to serve God's kingdom. He loves everything He has created. We have the privilege of giving it all back to Him.

"Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?" Knowing their malice, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? ...Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." – Mt 22:17b-18, 21c

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Life Explained

Question

Why don't Catholics add the "For yours is the Kingdom ..." prayer at the end of the Our Father like Protestants do? Where did it come from?

Answer

The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer that you refer to is called a doxology, which is a prayer of glory and praise. This particular doxology we do use in the Mass. After the Our Father, the priest prays the prayer that begins, "Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil..." and the people respond with the doxology. The doxology is not found in the Bible, but it is very ancient. It was first found in The Didache, also called "The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles," which dates probably from about the year AD 90. It was a letter of instruction to early converts to Christianity. Protestantism dates only to the sixteenth century, so the doxology is actually a Catholic prayer. Some scholars and the catechism (#2760) indicate that the doxology was connected to the celebration of the Eucharist and was not used apart from it.

Remember, both the Lord's Prayer and the Eucharist were part of the "mysteries of faith," things taught only to believers. Ironically, a remnant of a prayer used during the celebration of the Eucharist has come to be used widely by many Christian churches that do not celebrate the Eucharist! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction!

Virtues, Explained!

"It is not easy for man, wounded by sin, to maintain moral balance," we read in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (1811). "Christ's gift of salvation offers us the grace necessary to persevere in the pursuit of the virtues."

Perseverance is unique because without it, we cannot grow in any of the other virtues. If we cannot persevere, we cannot carry the cross. Faith, hope, love, mercy, justice, temperance — these virtues are the fruits of a Christian life, and perseverance is the soil in which they take root.

Like the soil in any garden, it has to be nourished. Perseverance is fed by trials, difficulties, and temptations. "We rejoice in our sufferings," writes St. Paul, "knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us" (Romans 5:4-5).
