WORSHIP NOTES FROM FR. JENSON

This is the great Feast of All Saints! St. Paul in our second reading puts it so clearly and plainly: "See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God." On this day we are honoring all the faithful who have discovered their real identity as the children of God and lived the identity out daily.

Through baptism we are made adopted children of God and given grace to live as such. The challenge is to cooperate with the grace of God in the sacraments and prayer to overcome the deadly effects of original sin and life in a world full of sinners. We are all called to live as God's children. The beatitudes in our gospel reading give us a road map.

Live The Liturgy

Inspiration of the Week

Got a broken heart? Rejoice! An empty bank account? Rejoice! Are you undervalued, overlooked? Rejoice! In the Beatitudes, Jesus offers more than just sweet sayings. He offers a challenge, one we can only meet if he is at our side: rejoice!

The challenge is real, but the reward is amazingly real. To begin the road to being saints can be quite simple. Cultivate the awareness of God in your day. Praise for even simple things, asking him to be with you as you do most anything. It begins simply, but I can promise you that it takes firm root and grows.

This weekend, Archbishop Hebda will be at St. Peter and Paul at the 9am Mass to bless the accessibility annex and preside at that Mass. He will stay for a while at the luncheon that follows, which also honors first responders, as this is National First Responders Day.

This Monday, November 2, is All Souls Day. We will have a Mass at St. Thomas at 8:30am to pray for the souls preparing for heaven in Purgatory. Come and pray for them.

Announcement(s):

Membership involves offering gifts of time, talent, and treasure to support St. Thomas the Apostle's mission. Please welcome Mariah Herold to the St. Thomas the Apostle parish family.

The Serra Club of Wright County welcomes Jackie Mosio, Program Coordinator at the Ignatian Spirituality Center, as our guest speaker for the Friday, November 13 general meeting (10am at St. Albert's Parish Center). Jackie will share insights into Ignatian spirituality and its role in deepening our relationship with God and strengthening our faith. Join us for coffee, donuts, and guest speaker. Following the meeting, we will pray the Rosary and participate in Mass. Confessions will be available after Mass.

VOLUNTEER BE A HERO

Nourishing HOPE is a ministry of Our Father's Lutheran Church in Rockford (ourfatherschurch.org/nourishing-hope.html). The mission is to relieve food insecurity by offering fresh produce, dairy, and meat to area folks.

Boxes of food are filled at Our Father's and then available for drive-through pickup on a first-come, first-served basis at St. Thomas Catholic Church and five other churches in Buffalo, Rockford, Delano, Hanover, and Maple Grove on the second Monday of each month.

Volunteers meet at Our Father's on the second Monday of each month at 9:45am for a couple of hours to fill boxes, then meet up again at 3:30pm at St. Thomas Parish Center for about an hour to distribute the boxes until they're gone.

The current St. Thomas ministry leader is looking for someone to replace her starting with the December 14th event. The leader's main responsibilities are purchasing, assembling, and labeling boxes as needed; coordinating with a list of St. Thomas volunteers for both morning food packing and evening food distribution; and communicating with Our Father's church ministry contact.

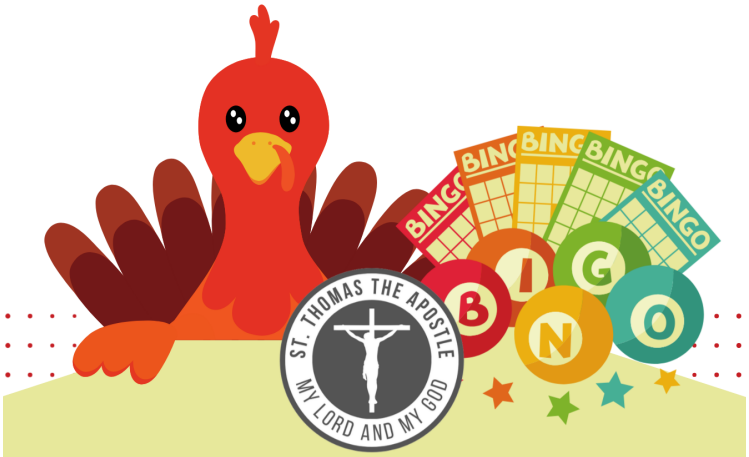

If interested in taking over as the St. Thomas ministry leader, contact the current leader, Lill Wawra, at 612.600.2050 or lwawra@hotmail.com. Lill will train her replacement.

LEARN MORE ABOUT YOUR CATHOLIC FAITH

GOSPEL MEDITATION | By Father John Muir

At the end of her short life, my hero, St. Thérèse of Lisieux, found herself in a curious position. She was convinced she would become a great saint and be loved by many after her death. At the same time, she insisted that she was weak, impatient, and ordinary. She became arguably the greatest saint in modern times. How can an ordinary, imperfect person also be a great saint?

On this All-Saints' Day, Jesus overturns our assumptions about holiness. He says, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven" (Matthew 5:3). The blessed are not the impressive or the self-sufficient, but the poor in spirit, the meek, the merciful, and the persecuted. These are not heroic traits by normal standards. They are signs of a heart that has learned to rely on God rather than itself. That's what St. Thérèse and all the saints are all about.

All Saints' Day is not a celebration of spiritual elites. Rather, it announces what grace can do in our ordinary lives. The saints are not those who avoid weakness or suffering, but those who allow these things to deepen their trust. What good news for us! The smaller and weaker we are, the more qualified we are to be great saints.

Prayer – For Everyday and Everybody

Blessing for All Saints

God,
Bless us as we journey in faith, a journey marked with twists and turns.
Bless us with the inspiration and friendship of those who have gone before us, the saints.
May their lives serve as guiding lights, beckoning us through the darkness to safety and rest.
Amen.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God."

– Mt 5:3, 9

Why Do We Do That?

Catholic Life Explained

Question

Why do Catholics care about saints?

Answer

One of the statements of faith we make when we pray the Nicene Creed and the Apostles Creed is that we believe in "the communion of saints." The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that this communion (another word for community) includes all the faithful on earth, the souls in Purgatory, and the blessed women, men, and children who are in heaven. This teaching is grounded in our belief that, through Baptism, we are united with Christ and to one another with bonds that are stronger even than death.

And so from the time of the early Church, Christians have turned to other believers for prayers and assistance, including those who have gone before us, confident that God hears the prayers of all of His children. While we ask the saints (and one another) for prayers and support, we remember that the saints join us in prayer. But it is God who blesses and sanctifies us.

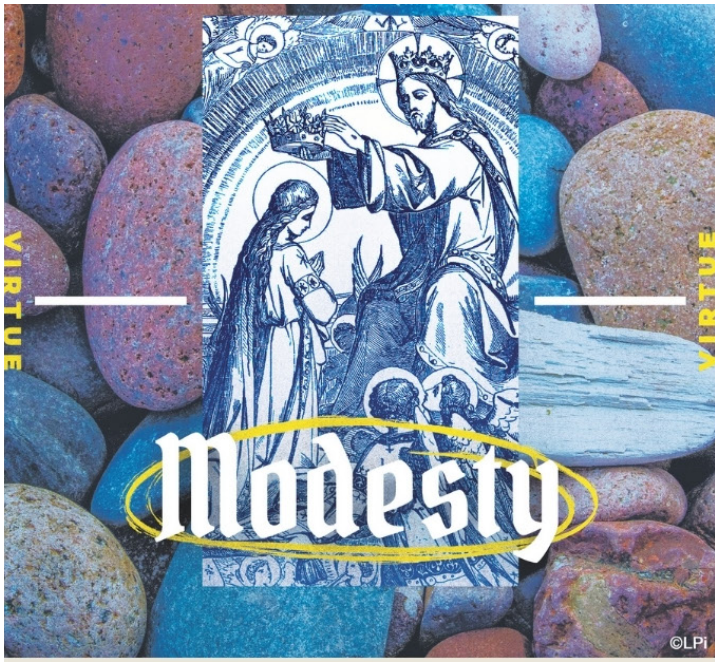

When we think of the saints in heaven, we have to remember that we can turn to them for intercession and assistance because they were faulted, limited human beings, just like us. This means that they are able to understand our struggles, doubts, fears, joys, and hopes. But as we learn their stories, we can also begin to recognize that they stand out in the history of the Church because they persevered in their commitment to follow Christ. Whether they were ordained, vowed religious, martyrs, husbands, wives, or even children, they show us that holiness is possible. We can not only follow their example but also benefit from their prayerful support.

Our devotion to the saints and gratitude for their witness, prayers, and protection should also be an inspiration for us, especially when we become aware of the needs of others or when others ask us to pray for them. We are called to share the blessings we receive. This is also part of our own journey of growing in holiness.

Catholic Trivia

How many different Masses during the liturgical year honor Mary, Mother of Jesus?

Answer: Fourteen

Virtues, Explained!

One of the 12 fruits of the Holy Spirit is modesty, related to the cardinal virtue of temperance, or moderation of passions. It means "refusing to unveil what should remain hidden" and in doing so "protects the intimate center of the person" (CCC 2521). This virtue is a guide for how we interact with others in a way that honors their inherent dignity.

Christ notably said that those who look upon others with lust commit adultery in their heart (Matthew 5:28), indicating that modesty is concerned not just with action but with thoughts and interior disposition. Parents are obliged to instruct their children in the ways of modesty as part of teaching respect for others.

"The forms taken by modesty vary from one culture to another," we read in the Catechism. "Everywhere, however, modesty exists as an intuition of the spiritual dignity proper to man. It is born with the awakening consciousness of being a subject" (CCC 2524).
